Preface

The 10th volume of the working paper series Interdisciplinary Studies on Information Structure (ISIS) of the SFB 632 contains two papers contributed by SFB-members. The issue offers insights into current work conducted at the SFB 632, comprising empirical and theoretical aspects of Information Structure.

The first paper “Single prosodic phrase sentences” by Caroline Féry (A1) & Heiner Drenhaus (C6, University of Potsdam) investigates the prosody of Wide Focus Partial Fronting in a series of production and perception experiments.

The second paper “Focus Asymmetries in Bura” by Katharina Hartmann, Peggy Jacob (B2, Humboldt University Berlin) & Malte Zimmermann (A5, University of Potsdam) explores the strategies of marking focus in Bura (Chadic).

We thank all reviewers for fruitful comments and Anke Gehrlein, student assistant of B4, for her help during editing this issue.
