Flying Arts ARTS ARTS ARTS ARTS ARTS...
Are you passionate about visual & media arts?

Do you want to study and work in the arts?

Want to meet other creative young people?

This year the annual gathering of gifted and talented young artists from QLD high schools around the state takes place in Townsville, in conjunction with James Cook University.

Over four days a stimulating line up of hands-on workshops as well as information, expertise and resources will provide participants with a full picture of training, education and career opportunities in the visual arts.

Top line artists, arts educators and special guests will all contribute to a high quality program designed to provide a platform for future practice, education and career.

Artiz is a must do program for young visual artists looking for training and career direction!

What 2010 Artiz participants said about the week…

“This week has been so full on and hectic but I've enjoyed being around creative people. Sharing ideas and growing artistically so much that I don't want to leave.”

Ashleigh, Year 11, Hervey Bay

“Inspired me to achieve a career in the arts.”

Ellen, Year 12, Tewantin

“It meant meeting new people. Learning new art styles and having a lot of fun.”

Eliza, Year 11, Ayr
