

Bongkud-Namaus, Sabah: Dreams of Bongkud Namaus, part 1

For my grandchildren, near and far, to be healthy. Repetoh, 76.

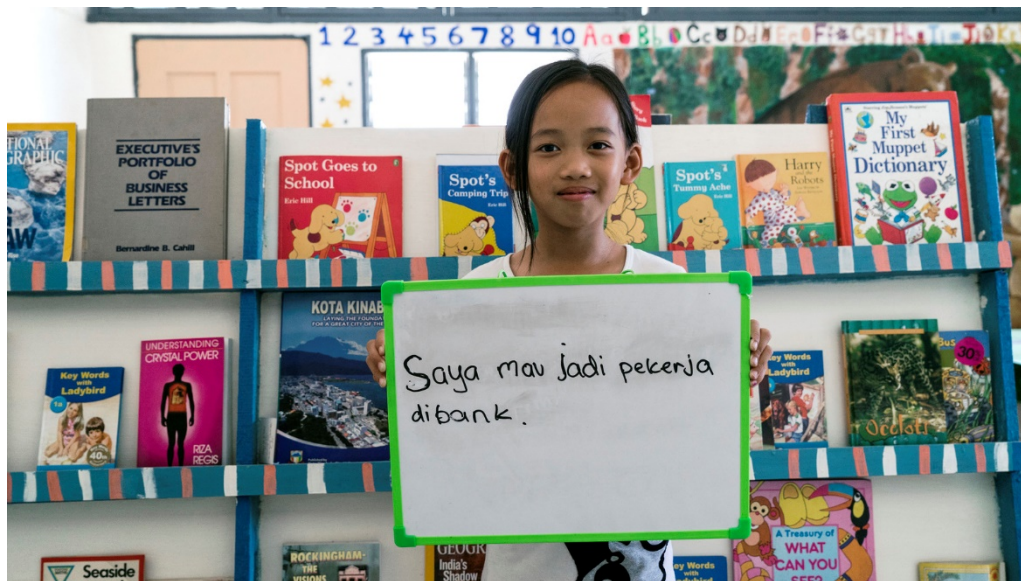

I want my grandchildren to be well educated. Yusuf, 100.

My dream is to win the lottery. Ruby, 31.

My dream is to have a thriving business. Michael, 56.

I want to work in a bank. Eva, 9.

To be successful in life, to always be healthy and for my business to run smoothly.
Jinus Api, 51.

Happiness and joy with my family. Keiloi, 70.

I want my family to always be healthy and for me to be rich! Hamkah, 20.

I want my fellow villagers to always be happy. Khit.

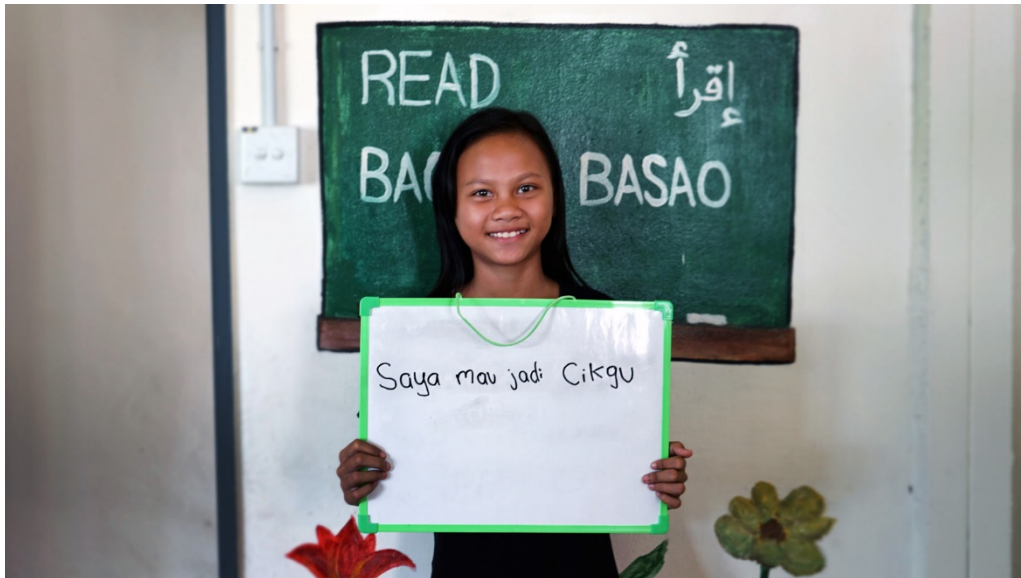

I want to be adored by everyone. Lajimin, 60.

I want my grandchildren to be healthy and educated. Jumiah.

I want a long van. Haris, 33.

I want to be a teacher. Marysha, 11.

I want to be skinny. Eric, 23.

For the Prime Minister to hear the Villagers' voice. Beth, 27.

To be successful in the "Clash of the Clans" game. Well, 35.

I want to be an engineer, Canon, 11.

To be successful in life and to always be healthy. Mahina, 52.

I want good luck wherever I go. Edul.

To be a healthy woman and a good mother. Fauzila, 18.

I want a successful business for the sake of my family's happiness. Muhidin, 55.

I want a successful life, Julie.

To be a lawyer. Delvandy, 7.