Synopsis

Tiptoe by Michael Beresford

A JUTE Theatre production

They say Charters Towers, the town they call 'The World' was born out of sound of thunder and flashes of lightning. This iconic Queensland gold mining town is the setting for this spine-chilling story about the people and their secrets.

When Brisbane visual artist Emma Lee is commissioned to construct a public art piece in Charters Towers for the Centenary celebrations, inspired by notorious vagrants Annie Bags and Tiptoe Jen, from the town's gold mining past.

Legend has it that Annie Bags, once a Prussian Princess who could play the piano beautifully, continually walked back and forth from the Tiptoe to Townsville, sleeping rough, and sometimes accompanied by Tiptoe and a trail of dogs, cats and goats.

Tiptoe Jen mysteriously disappeared and Emma becomes convinced that Charters Towers elderly respected Bradley sisters Winsome, Ruby and Dot, know what happened to her. Emma's quest to find the truth is fraught with danger. It appears the elderly sisters may not be what they seem. The consequences for Emma Lee could be dreadful.

Featuring Carol Burns, well known for her role as Frankie in TV's Packed, Suellen Maunder, Susan Prince, and welcoming back to the JUTE stage Kylee McDowall. Directed by Brisbane's David Fenton this Charters Towers mystery becomes a gothic adventure into Queensland history.
